About Murdoch University

Murdoch University helps people discover how to make a difference, through education and research endeavour, and remains one of the most inclusive universities in the country, providing students with quality education and recognised academic standing within an engaging and caring environment. We are a university for all, irrespective of background and social standing with a focus on social equity, self-direction and freedom of thought and belief.

With strong links to government, business and the community, Murdoch University helps people discover how to make a difference. We are a young, innovative and enterprising university with more than 23,000 students and 1,700 staff across Perth, Singapore and Dubai. We are committed to high quality education, innovative research, and strong community engagement both locally and internationally.

Our Strategic Plan and Future Horizon 2017-2027 outlines an ambitious blueprint for development and growth, with a focus on one purpose: to be a creative force for current and future generations.

We are clear about our two core goals: to educate free thinkers who thrive in society and are sought after by employers; and, to provide life changing solutions for the world's big challenges through our outstanding translational research and innovative practice.

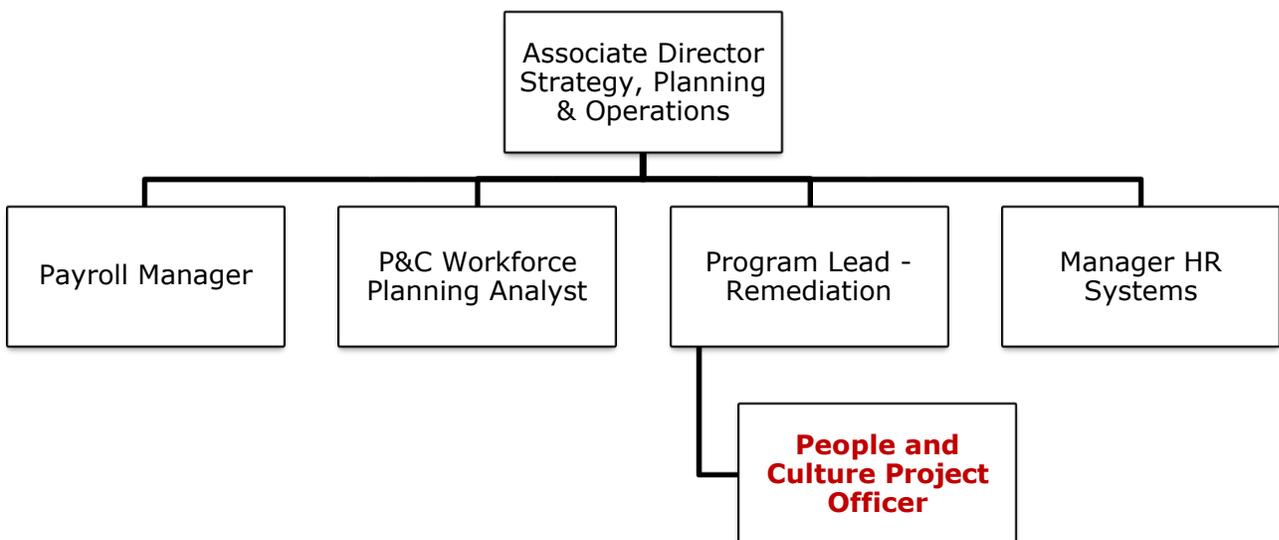

About the Work Area

The People and Culture team is an integral part of the business strategy and decision-making process focusing their efforts on strategic and operational programs and services that supports staff and organisational objectives. We develop partnerships based on trust and integrity to foster excellence, engagement and fairness, as we work to strengthen the University's ability to recruit and retain high quality staff and develop a culture that encourages and supports academics and professional staff to reach their full potential.

Staff within the People and Culture Office will actively demonstrate:

- close working relationships with the Schools and Offices to identify needs and assist in servicing them;
- being client focused and operating as a business partner;
- prompt and efficient service;
- be respectful and courteous at all times;
- confidentiality and integrity in all matters;
- have a positive approach to achieve the best possible outcomes.
